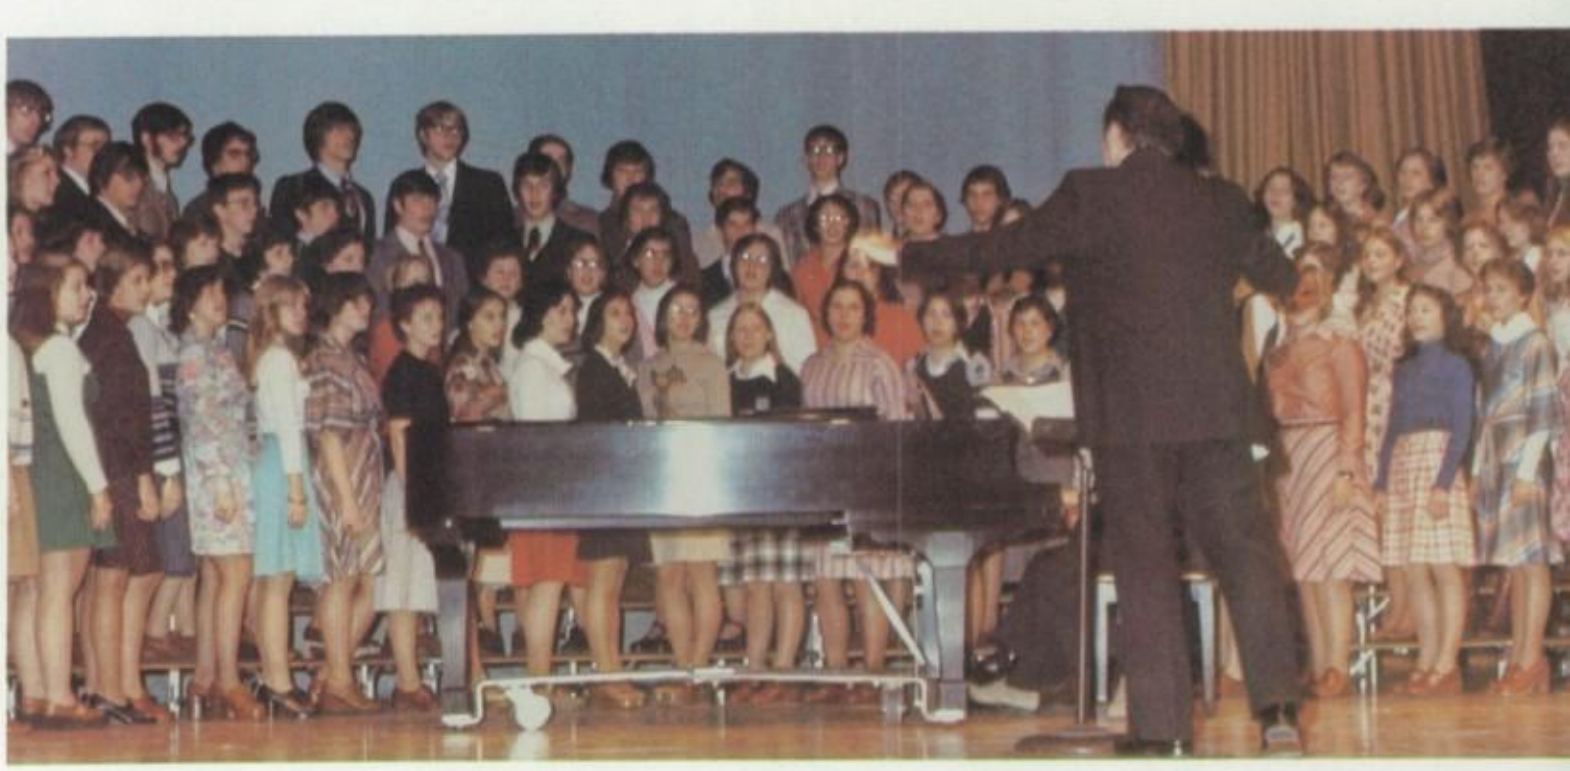
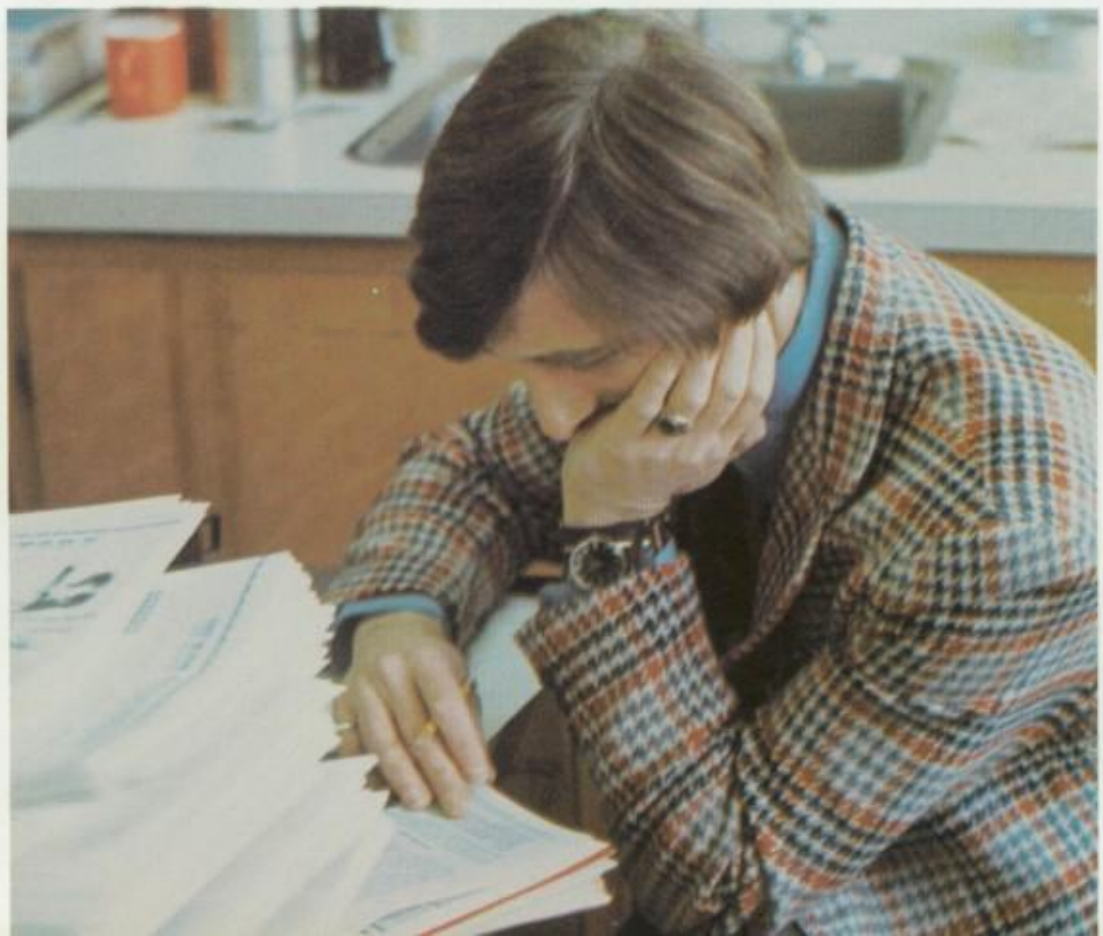
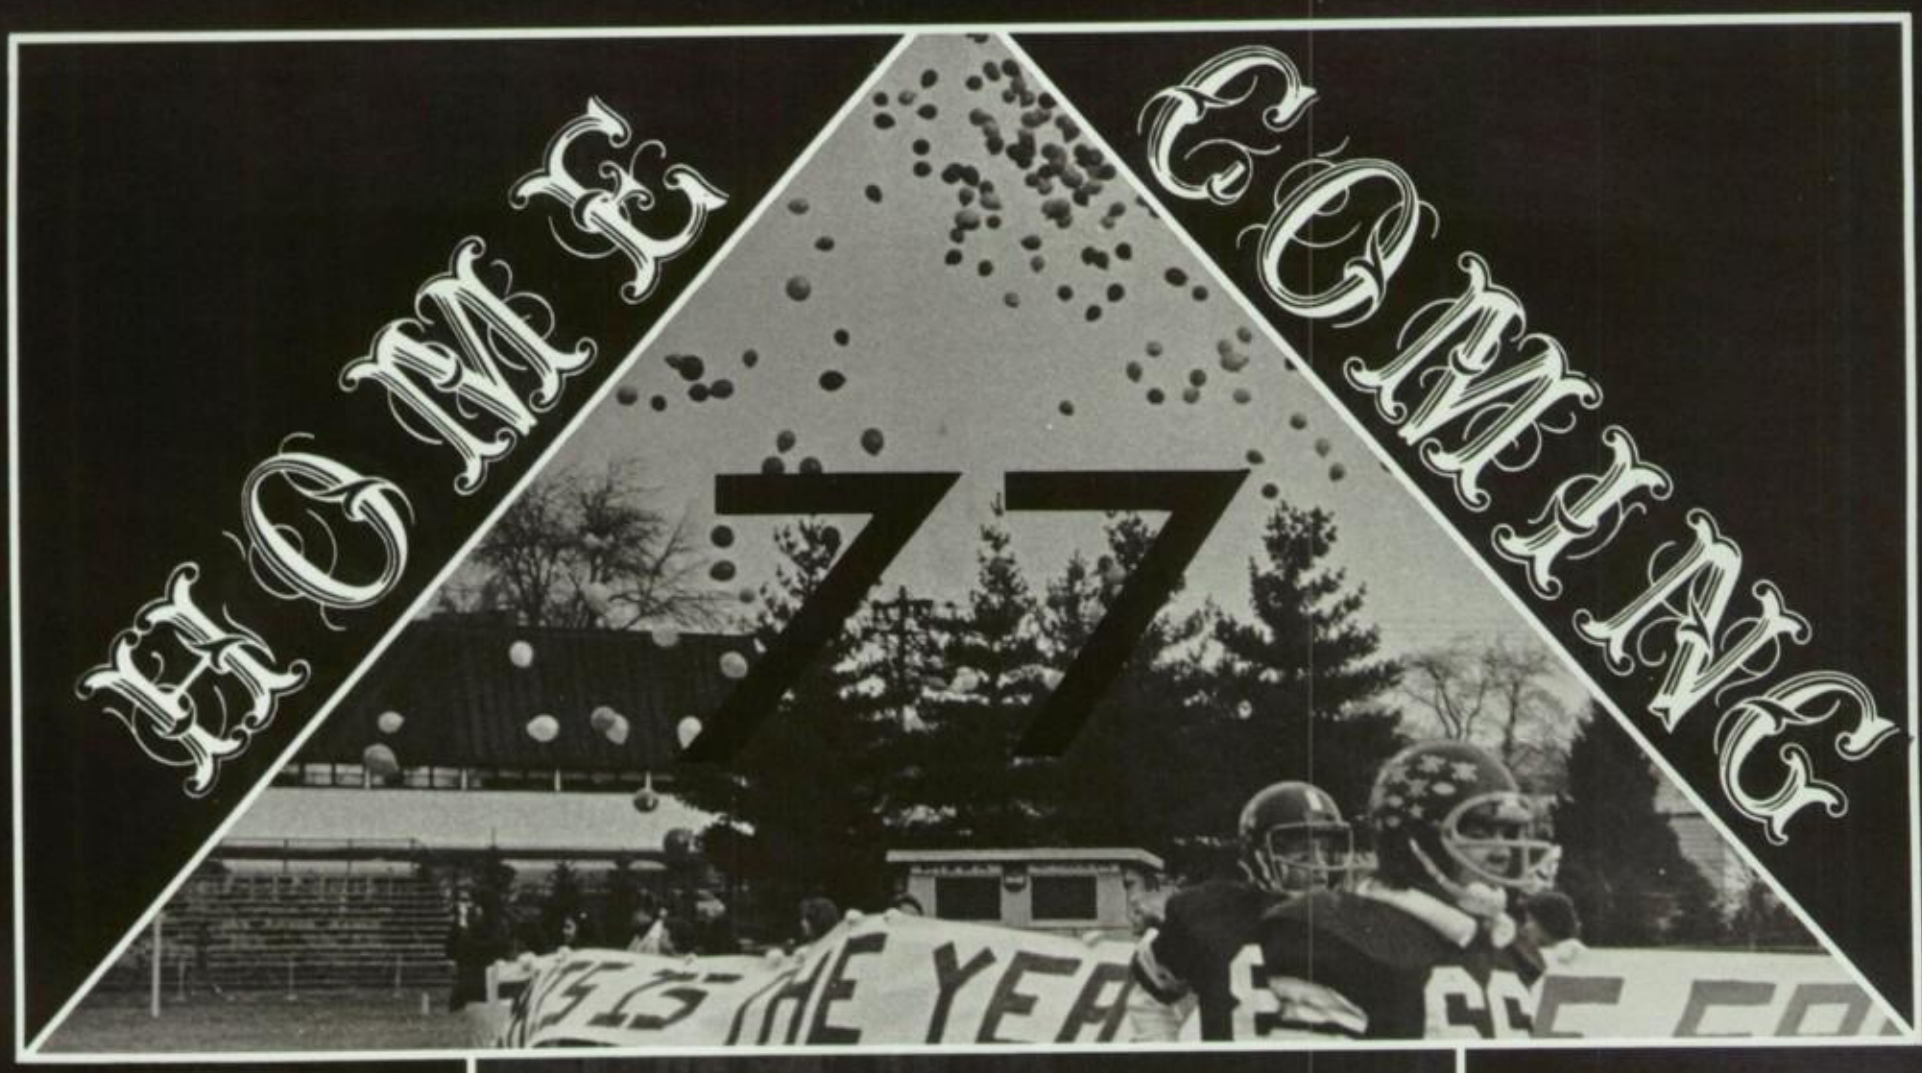
KINGSTON HIGH SCHOOL







Wyoming Valley West held its annual Homecoming Thanksgiving morning, November 25, 1976.

Because of the football game some members of the court had stand-ins. Mike Hrycik stood in for Dave Johns; Matt Walton for Les Nicholas and Mark Gentry for Mitch Ripa.

Mr. James Ferris, Principal, crowned Karen Eroh as Ms. Sparta and Mitch Ripa as Mr. Sparta.

Ms. Ruth Mc Monigal and Mr. Richard Mital, the reigning Ms. and Mr. Sparta presented Karen with a bouquet of roses.

After the ceremonies the balloons for the Annual Balloon Launch were released and on their way. Prizes were awarded for th balloon which traveled the farthest and the one which landed in the most unusua place.

Ms. Lynn Kaufer was th Chairperson for the homecoming activities and was responsible for all arrangements.

This year's Student Council proved to be very productive. Besides running the annual Homecoming program, the Student Council also initiated a number of school and community projects. Over Christmas a canned goods drive was held. The proceeds were distributed among needy families in the surrounding areas. A hugh turkey accompanied each care package.

Another project the Student Council undertook was a paper drive which also turned out to be very successful. The paper drive was active for a number of months.

In March, a talent show was held. Both the students and faculty enjoyed it enormously. Since the reaction was so positive, a number of talent shows will be held before vacation.

The Student Council was also instrumental in reaching a mutually satisfactory answer to the open lunch question with both the students and the faculty.

In addition, the decorating of the Christmas tree and the music in the cafeteria were under the direction of the Council.

Thanks to the generosity of the student body, the monthly Penny Day profits were very high, and the Student Council had no trouble in supporting the two orphans in Argentina.

It was a very busy and productive year for the Council. Student response to all projects was excellent. Better yet, the projects sponsored by the Student Council were those which did a lot of good for a lot of people.

STUDENT DAY

On May 4, Student Day was held at Wyoming Valley West High School. This annual event sees the students taking the role of the teacher. The role changing is a complete process with the administration "falling prey" to the hands of the students as well. This project, sponsored by Student Council, gives students a chance to see how it looks from the other side of the fence. Taking leading roles in this year's project were Dan Messinger as principal, Sylvia Kuchinskas as vice-principal, Toni Roccograndi, Matt Walton, Jenny Turaj, and Bev Rabinowitz as guidance counselors. Most agreed the day was a huge success.

BAND

The 1976-77 Spartan Marching Band consisted of 120 playing members with a band front of 15 majorettes, four color guards and one drum major.

Appearing at all eleven Spartan football games, the band presented a variety of field shows using block band, company front and free form design.

Included in the musical repertoire were marching band arrangements of "Malagueria," "Feelings," "One O'clock Jump," "Brahm's Symphony #1," "Barnum and Bailey's Favorite" and "That's the Way I Like It."

In addition to its field shows, the band also appeared at the Pocono Moutain Cavalcade of Bands; hosted its own Wyoming Valley West Cavalcade of Bands; and made numerous appearances in local parades.

This year's band was the largest in the history of Wyoming Valley West.

Seniors

Complementing the band in most of its activities the majorettes spurred the Spartans on to further action and team spirit. This year four sophomore twirlers were added to the squad. Captained by Sue Pietrzyoski, the majorettes performed to such tunes as "Do the Hustle," and the traditional "Smoke on The Water," helping to generate the "Spartan Spirit."

1st ROW: C. Mahon, D. Boyer, M. Ruseskas, V. Mrugal, E. Taroli, J. Meyers, C. Ferris, P. George, R. Kornblau, T. Roccograndi, 2nd ROW: N. Stuccio, C. Dzugan, A. Savoca, T. Strach, D. Martin.

Generating Spartan spirit throughout the school year are fifteen varsity cheerleaders consisting of eight seniors and seven juniors advised by Mrs. Janet Coombs. Senior members are Donna Boyer, Randie Kornblau, Vicki Mrugal, Toni Roccograndi, Michele Ruseskas, Nancy Stuccio, and co-captains are Carol Ferris and Elaine Taroli. Junior members are Celeste Dzugan, Peggy George, Cathy Mahon, Diane Martin, Jackie Meyers, Ann Marie Savoca, and Tina Strach.

The year to date has been a successful one for the squad, beginning in June with cheerleading camp. The girls spent a week at an ICF cheerleading clinic held at Stroudsburg Sports Camp. The cheerleaders represented the burgandy and gold well by winning all of the clinic awards which include the Dynamite Stick for displaying the most spirit throughout the week, the Clinic Award for congeniality, and the Randy Neil Award which qualified them for a national competition to be held later in the year. In September, the Spartan cheerleaders placed third in the Wyoming Valley Mall competition in a field of fifteen squads. The autumn season finds rousing enthusiasm at football games and pep rallies. With the coming of winter, the cheerleaders will be supporting the basketball and wrestling teams.

In the spring, the girls will attend the LCCC cheerleading competition where last year they won a runner-up trophy.

WE SPELL ROWDIE — IT'S THE WAY TO GO

It was an innovative year for the Spartan cheerleaders as they held many unique pep rallies. Every pep rally held excitement as the students anxiously awaited the latest skit or surprise from such characters as a Meyer's Mohawk or a wounded Pittston Patriot. One of the favorite pep rallies included the Kiss Contest won by Jimmie (Elvis) Cheek who was then "showered" with kisses by the cheerleaders and an unknown beauty suspected to be Jeff Stine.

ROWDIE! LET'S GET ROWDIE! ROWDIE!

One Friday, the regular cheerleaders were unable to make the pep rally and so it was necessary to call in cheerleaders from the year 1956. Clad in their bobby socks and red lipstick, they led the student body with such cheers as "How do you like your cabbage?" and "Candy sneakers!" Special guest for the pep rally was "Steinzie" (Jeff Steinzzerelli of Happy Days). One thing is certain, the cheerleaders definitely succeeded in making the students ROWDIE!

Always lending valuable support to the Varsity Cheerleaders at games and pep rallies, the J.V. Cheerleaders made it clear that the "Spartan Spirit" will be alive for many years to come.

Their season began in early summer at cheering camp and continued with undying enthusiam throughout football, basketball, and wrestling.

Led by co-captains Dawn DeReemer and Brenda Bobeck, their pep and vitality never faltered.

Adviser Elaine Bauer did an excellent job directing the J.V.'s.

CHORUS

This year 175 voices joined together to form the senior high chorus of Wyoming Valley West.

Under the direction of Mr. Frank Edwards, the chorus performed in two concerts this year. On December 12th, 1976, the chorus held their annual Christmas Concert. As in the past, the concert was enjoyed by all who attended. Also, during the Christmas season a select group of students called the "Spartan Singers" performed at various churches, group meetings, and nursing homes spreading the Christmas spirit.

On May 6th, 1977, the annual Spring Concert at W.V.W. was held. The chorus participated along with the string orchestra and the band. Everyone felt the concert brought great pride to our school.

Another great honor was the representation of 13 students from our school to participate in the District Chorus Festival held at Dallas High School in February. As a result of auditions, seven of the students advanced to the Regional Chorus Festival which was held in March at Selingsgrove High School.

For only the second time in WVW's history, a student was selected to attend the All-State Chorus, which was held this year in Pittsburgh. The student chosen was senior Donna Boyer. This honor was a culmination of intense auditions and rehearsals, and we are sure that this accomplishment will be remembered in future musical endeavors at Wyoming Valley West.

HARVEY

The curtain went up for Wyoming Valley West's performance of "Harvey" on Wednesday evening, November 24. This play is the story of Elwood P. Dowd and his best friend Harvey, a six-foot white rabbit. A large audience enjoyed the successful production of the hilarious 40's comedy by Mary Chase.

Members of the cast were Jeanette Pawlak (Mrs. Veta Louise Simmons), Bev Rabinowitz (Myrtle Mae Simmons), Chas. Miller (Dr. Chumley), Kurt Diddlebock (Judge Omar Gaffney), Hugh Hughes (Dr. Lyman Ianderson), Lori Pritchard (Nurse Kelly), Joe Kurent (Duane Wilson), Peggy George (Mrs. Eugene Chauvenet, Sr.), Mike Lukatchik (E.J. Lofgren), Jane McCarty (Mrs. Chumley), Dave Smith (Elwood P. Dowd), and Harvey (himself).

The magic touch of veteran director Robert Graham was apparent. Staging, lighting, movement—all had the professional finesse. It was the kind of production W.V.W. has come to expect. And they just keep getting better.

The cast performed well, much better than would be expected on the high school level. At all times they were good; and there were moments when they were great.

Student director Linda Esrov extended a great deal of effort and made valuable contributions to the production.

After it's all said and it's all done, and the final curtain drops, there remains only one real summary question: Was it all worth it?

As usual with Graham productions, the answer was a resounding "yes!"

THE SOUND OF MUSIC

The curtain opened April 23, 1977, on W.V.W.'s presentation of "The Sound of Music." Although rehearsal had been halted by the energy crisis, the performance showed no flaws.

The stage was studded with nuns, ballerinas, waltzers and Nazis, making a delightful combination.

The all-star cast was led by Donna Boyer, whose portrayal of Maria Ranier was truly profesional, and Scott Steinhauer, who was a convincing Captain von Trapp.

The von Trapp children were played by Toni Roccograndi, Jim Sorber, Janet Bryant, David Rimple, Vicki Mrugal, Carol Ferris and Jean Pasternacki.

The other rolls were played by Hugh Hughes (Max Detweiler), Jeanette Pawlak (Elsa Schrader), Anna Swabaski (Mother Abess), Joanne Rhiel, Patty O'Bryne, Sandy Reese, Bill Stusnick, Bev Rabinowitz, Chas Miller, and Kurt Diddlebock.

The scenery was designed by director Robert Graham and constructed by Graham and the stage crew. The original Brooks Van Horn costumes added to the final touch, making the show as authentic as possible.

Over the years the Wyoming Valley West annual musical has acquired an enviable reputation for excellence. The 1977 offering certainly measured up.

The performance was well received by a packed house for four consecutive evenings. Comment from the student body and the community was extremely complimentary.

As usual, the last comment heard was "What's for next year?"

Whatever it is, we are confident that it will be in keeping with the fine image of WVW musicals.

Fiesta De Lenguas...

Das Sprachfest ...

Fete Des Langues ...

Festivus Dies Barbarum Linguarum...

The Foreign Language Festival was held Thursday, March 31, at the high school. Approximately 700 language students from Grades 8 through 12 participated in a variety of activities including skits, musical numbers, dramatizations, dance routines, and simulated TV programs. Others submitted culturally related projects that were on display in the Girls' gym. Foods, representing various countries, were prepared by the language students and served in the cafeteria.

One of the featured skits was a "take-off" of NEWSWATCH 16, news program of WNEP TV. Channel 16, impressed with the idea, sent a crew in to televise the skit. The skit is to be presented over Channel 16 news in the near future.

Over 1500 people attended the festival. Along with representatives of neighboring school districts, the festival was attended by foreign language teachers and professors from Scranton Preparatory School, North Pocono High school, King's College and Wilkes College. A large number of WVW staff members also attended.

LANGUAGE FESTIVAL

FINE ARTS FIESTA

On May 23 and 24 the Art and Practical Arts Departments displayed student work completed during the present school year.

Objects displayed revealed a wide variety of talents ranging from jewelry to oil paintings.

The Festival has become a popular part of the total school program, and one that promises to remain so. It affords the students an opportunity to show what they are capable of; it allows the community to observe for themselves the value of the programs offered.

TALENT SHOW

Last February the Student Council held a talent show that exposed some of the finest talent in Wyoming Valley West.

Among those who participated were Barbara Jo Podskoch and Jo Ann Rhiel, who composed and sang three songs. Anna Swaboski was accompanied by Ann Pasternacki, who played the piano; Dawn Campbell, flute; John Pesta, trumpet; Chris Galdon, drums; Scott Steinhauer, guitar; and Dave Hockman, bass guitar. They performed their version of "Feelings."

The highlight of the show was the "Many Voices of Stu Fischer," who performed a "Telethon for the Prevention of Dandruff." The voices included many celebrities, such as Peter Lorre, Count Dracula, "The Fonz," Alistair Cooke, and many more.

A special attraction to the show was a rock band consisting of Jim McCabe on guitar, Dave Ogen on lead guitar, Scott Steinhauer on bass guitar, and Mike Michaels on drums. Their songs were performed very professionally and certainly added a fine touch to the spectacle.

JoAnn Rhiel, the chairman of the show, did a fine job recruiting and organizing the exceptional talent that performed; and the Master of Ceremonies, Steve Zavatski, conducted the show in a very professional manner.

FOOTBALL

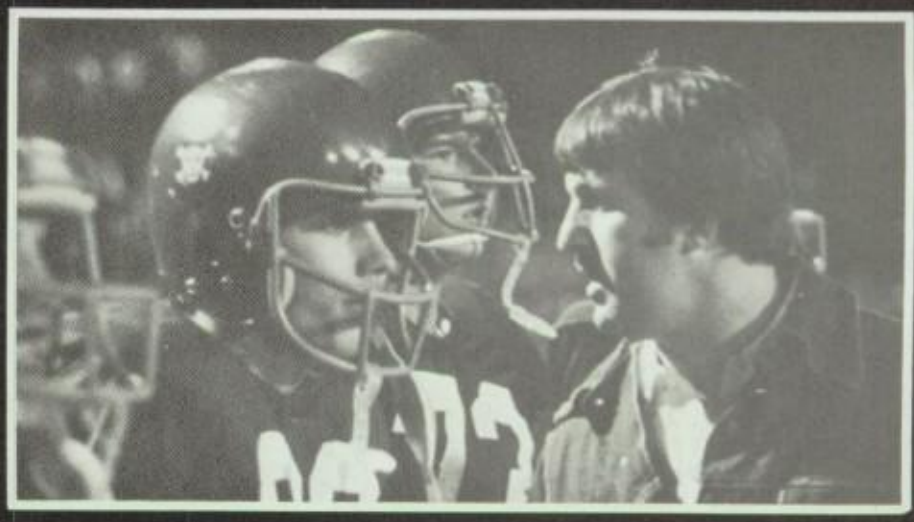
Three . . . two . . . one . . . take tape! Welcome to NBC's Sport Show, "Grandstand." Happy Thanksgiving everyone! Today we have an NBC special! We're going to bring you highlights from a high school football game in Pennsylvania. The game is a traditional Turkey Day rivalry between Wyoming Valley West High School and Coughlin High School.

That's right! The 1976-77 WVW football team can boast of something never before done! They were seen on nation-wide television before 220 million Americans! On November 24, the day before Thanksgiving, the television crews pulled up to set up to cover the WVW-Coughlin tilt. Homecoming and the annual balloon launch were also covered by NBC. The "television game" highlighted an otherwise dismal season for our Spartans.



Our Spartans finished with a disappointing mark. Their record however, does not truly represent the team, for they lost six games by one touchdown or less. The boys however, never gave up hope when it would have been easy to become disenchanted.

Led by tri-captains Bruce Gooday, Rick Sendrick, and Dave Johns, the team represented WVW proudly and were in every game until the final gun sounded. It is unfortunate that this team will be collared with a poor record, for they have many accomplishments which, like the "TV game," will not go into the record books.

Replay now the emotion of a Jim Cheek or a Jeff Katra violently hitting a ball carrier, the drama of a Paul Somerville or a Mike Bidding sacking the quarterback, and the beauty of a Dave Johns' pass arching through the air into the arms of Bob Rushworth, Tony Madden, or Les Nicholas. Think back on the most thrilling moments in Valley West football's past as Pete Ochinko, George Gomba. Charlie Boyer, Conrad Walko, Mike Piekanski, Paul Urban, John Yankovich, Rich Saracino, Bill MacAvoy, Ed Karasek, Mitch Ripa, and many many more march across the pages in scores of action-packed photos.

Coach Ed Brominski

The WVW freshmen team, coached by Herb Pearson and Art Valli, completed its finest season with a perfect 9-0 record.

The defense, led by Frank Ratchford, Emil Metroka, and Roger Bearde, posted five shut outs. They gave up only 34 points during the entire season for an average of 3.7 points per game. Other defensive standouts were Rich Stefanides, and Leo Boutanos.

The offense, powered by quarterback Dennis Gromel and back John Veshinski, averaged 192.6 yards per game. Veshinski rushed for 1,006 yards of the total 1,732 yards gained and scored 16 touchdowns. Gromel also took care of the punting and field goal duties. Anchoring the backfield was Ben Barsh and Sammy Sutton. Leading the receiving corp was Ron Serafin, hauling in 4 passes for touchdowns.

The true devastation is reflected in the game results: WVW over Berwick, 12-0; over Wyoming Area, 27-0; over Dallas, 42-0; over Bishop O'Reilly, 46-6; Meyers, 40-0; GAR 20-0; Pittston, 15-0; Hazelton, 26-0; and Nanticoke, 36-14.

This year's Junior Varsity team showed signs of a bright future for WVW in football. Some outstanding performances were turned in during the course of the season.

Jimmy "Golden Arm" Strickland led the team to two big wins over the Berwick Area Bulldogs and the Dallas Mountaineers. Powering the explosive backfield was Mark Koval and John Sims. Strickland's sticky-fingered receivers were Frank Kren, Dale Parmentari, and Jerry O'Hara. Leading the "Big D" was Mark Duda, Dave Savage, and Mike Horvath. The secondary was spearheaded by the aggressive play of Brian Masgay, Fred Moody and Greg Andres. Other standouts include Ray Vanyo, Brian Thomas, and Len Kosicki.

When the season concluded it was clear that WVW can let the word go forth that a team which is aggressive, fast-paced, and exciting is emmerging.

SOCCER

In its first season, the Spartan soccer team posted a 2-11 record on the varsity level and a 4-4-3 record on the JV level. The Spartan soccer team finished fourth in the Susquehanna Soccer League with a 2-6 record. These slates are an outstanding achievement considering the young soccer booters were playing more established and experienced teams. The highlight of the season came when the team defeated Wyoming Seminary by a 2-0 score. In addition, the Spartans thoroughly outclassed a seasoned Elk Lake team 4-2 for their second victory. The large following of students and parents support witnessed the young Spartans come close to winning many games, but were often defeated in the final period of play.

The team was led by co-captains Guy Chiazza and Rich Cohen. Other seniors winning letters were: Dave Alfano, Jim Clemente, Bob Davis, Steve Evans, Danny Messinger, Dave Orson, John Rukstalis, Bruce Shiplett, and Wayne Williams. Underclassmen earning letters were: Chris Cassilli, Jim Grinavich, George Yeninas, Hugh Jones, Dave Goldstein, Alan Gilbert, and Mike Chisarick. The team was assisted in its endeavors by manager Mike Kadis and statistican Rick Miller. Members of this year's squad who will contribute greatly to next year's team include: Mike Chupka, Gary Barnard, Dave Drust, Jerry Emerick, John Garyl, Wally Gilbert, Charlie Jacien, Tom Lally, John Phillips, Jim Rasnick, Ron Shiner, Chris Shelly, and Dave Yuscavage.

Team coaches, Tom Jones and Charles Wilson, anticipate a large turnout of interested candidates for the 1977 season. "It is hoped that the team will extend its present 13 game season to a 16 game schedule," says Coach Wilson. "With a fine number of returning experienced players interspersed with new underclassmen we are confident of improving our record and possibly making the playoffs next season."

GOLF

The 1976-77 Spartan golf team, under second-year coach Sandy Mackay, posted a 5-6 slate. This year's team, captained by Steve Greenwald, included Larry Minkoff, Carl Yachim, Dave Paulauskas, Jeff Burke, and Tom Michalek. Carl Yachim led the team in the most wins category as the team fared well in matches with Wyoming Area, West Side Tech, Dallas, Bishop O'Reilly, Wyoming Seminary, and Bishop Hoban. Carl Yachim and Steve Greenwald were voted MVP and Outstanding Golfer respectively by their fellow teammates.

WV

The Spartanettes then returned home to defeat Lake-Lehman, thus setting the stage for a game with Wyoming Seminary. The girls were really psyched when they travelled to the Sem game (always a high point in the season). In one of the best games local field hockey fans have seen in quite some time, the girls lost a tough game 2-1.

With one game remaining, the team had a shot at going to State Play-Offs. However, the girls from Nanticoke proved too tough, defeating the team 1-0.

The top scorer for this season was Gail Karassik with six goals. Suzanne Mras and Kathie Scouton were right behind with 5 and 4 respectively. Trisha Lukas and Linda Pencavage each had three. Carolyn Berti had two, and Pam Van Scoy had 1 to round out the scoring. In addition to these excellent showings on the field, manager Jan Lowe did an outstanding job on the sidelines.

Although the team will be losing nine seniors, they will also be gaining some experienced players from the newly formed eighth and ninth grade team. With spirit, determination, and skill returning next year WVW should be the team to beat!

This year's Junior Varsity Girl's Field Hockey team posted a record of which they can be proud; 6-0-2! Their overall record was 9-0-3 with Coughlin, Lake-Lehman, and Lackawanna Trail being the only teams to tie our girls. Eight girls chipped in for a total of 24 goals scored. Carolyn Berti, a junior, was high scorer with 10 goals. Evette Boutanos, Karen Delong and Linda Pencavage scored three apiece. Peggy Howells had two goals, while Kathie Scouton, Nadja Seman, and Mary Toporcer each had one.

At a playday held at State College, the JV's took first place with a 4-0 record. This tough Spartanette defense was unscored upon. Led by co-captains Evette Boutanos and Karen Delong, the JV's had a fine season, but will be working hard for an even better one next year.

ANOTHER WINNING SEASON

CROSS COUNTRY

Coach Larry Brunner's female harriers finished their season in winning style. The team finished with an overall 5-1 record and took first place in the PIAA District II Championship at Einmann Golf Course.

This fine team was led by two time letter person Cheryl Wallace. Cheryl placed second at Districts. Following close behind Cheryl was Deanna Sabelesky, who finished third at Districts. Also turning in fine performances were Sandy Tometchko, Maureen Kinney, and Robin Potera. Rounding out the top nine were Debbie Sabalesky, Malinda Banash, Marilyn Kennedy, and Jackie Kennedy. This is a relatively young team with only one of the top nine members graduating. This team will be a definite contender for many upcoming years.

The Wyoming Valley West Cross Country season finished much like any other season; with a winning season! The team finished with a 10-5 overall log and an 8-3 league record. This now brings Coach Larry Brunner's WVW Cross Country record to an outstanding 154-44-2 for a 78% win record.

Leading this years team was three time letterman Dan

Thomas. Dan was one of the only undefeated runners in District II. He continued his excellent performance by winning the District II Cross Country Championship at Einmann Golf Course. The number two man this year was Bernie Barry, a natural distance runner. The number three man, Charlie Howell, never quite reached his potential due to a knee injury. Although he missed five meets due to the injury, he was a definite plus to the team. Coming in number four for most of the season was Mike Borinski. Completing the top five was Dave "Tex" Rittenhouse. Also helping the team by being at the right place at the right time were San Gershonowitz and Jim "Fritz" Franzoni. Rounding out this years team was Robert Jensen, Jim Malcolm, Glen Weaver, Matt Stolow, Alan Hershenfeld, and Andy Haschack.

WINTER TRACK

The unsung heroes of Winter Track posted another impressive season under Coach Larry Brunner's leadership. The Spartans showed courage, spirit, and determination as they refused to let the coldest winter of the century freeze their chances for another track title. The severe cold which closed schools for almost three weeks didn't stop these track men. They ran in snow two feet deep. They ran in 40 mph winds, and they ran on days when the wind chill factor made it feel -40" F.

Braving mother nature's assaults for the distance team this year were Dan Thomas, Sean Mullen, Dave "TEX" Rittenhouse, Mike Borinski, and Charlie Howell. Running for Coach Stu Harry in the sprints were John "FROG" Forgash, Jim "FRITZ" Franzoni, Steve Evans, Bob Rushworth, Chas Boyer, and Mike Musto.

The hurdlers also were impressive as they initiated the motto, "Hurdling is not a matter of life or death—it's more than that." This years hurdlers were Bob "Pinky" Davis, Les "Model" Nicholas, George Yeninas, and John Yankovich.

Competing in the weight program were Rich Sendrick, Mark Duda, Rich Skovira, Paul Somerville, and Dan Dudish.

The girls also showed contempt for frost bite and continued the fine WVW track tradition. Members of this year's girls' team includes Cheryl Wallace, Maureen Kinney, Karen "KUDA" Pyros, and Donna Fell.

These girls and boys will form the nucleus of what appears to be another banner year for Wyoming Valley West in track!

WYOMING VALLEY

With four players returning from last year's 10-4 team, Coach Jack Mascioli looked forward to a very promising year. To complement the four returning lettermen—Tony Madden, Mike Piekanski, Rich Cohen, and Dave Capin—were three fine J.V. ballplayers—Dan Messinger, Pat McCue, and Tom Casey. With these seven players Coach Mascioli had the nucleus of a championship for Wyoming Valley West.

The Spartan cagers started the new season with a surprisingly easy win over West Hazelton. This was followed by a trouncing of Freeland on the loser's home court. After these two impressive victories, the Spartans were looking towards their big showdown with one of the state's top teams—Reading. The Spartans were out to avenge a 40 point loss last year. They did this and more as they pulled off a stunning 8 point loss overtime victory. The team was led by Tony Madden, Mike Piekanski, and Rich Cohen. The Spartans proceeded to trample over the remainder of their exhibition opposition. Despite being the only team in the Valley with an unblemished record, they were still picked to finish second behind Nanticoke.

The Spartans opened the season competition with an impressive 72-46 victory over crosstown rival Bishop O'Reilly. They followed this with an 80-68 victory at home with Bishop Hoban. These two games set the stage for the showdown with Nanticoke.

The Spartans went into the game as 6 point underdogs. The boys led the entire game until the Trojans took a one point lead with a minute and a half remaining. The Trojans went on to win the heart breaker by a score of 57-54.

WEST BASKETBALL

This disappointing defeat was the first since the group of ballplayers began playing together in the early summer. The Spartans then finished the first half campaign, despite a lay off due to the extremely cold weather, in a tie for second place.

The second half was a mirror image of the first. The Spartans lost again to Nanticoke.

In the District II playoffs the Spartans played the number one team from the Scranton Area—Scranton Central. Although heavy underdogs, the boys played well and pulled off the upset. This set up the game they wanted. They would have to play Nanticoke again, but this time on a neutral court.

The Spartans traveled to the Scranton CYC with bus loads of supporters, but they once again failed to win the big one as the Trojans proved too much for them.

The team was eliminated from the double elimination tournament in their next game with Norristown.

Although they failed in their bid for the state championship the team's success can be measured by the personal honors won. Tony Madden and Mike Piekanski were named to the Independent All Scholastic First Team, while Rich Cohen placed on the second team. Dave Capin and Pat McCue received honorable mention. Dan Messinger was the strong and able sixth man who could be counted on at all times for a capable performance.

The '77 Spartans were undisputably one of the finest teams in the district. When they put it all together, they were unbeatable.

GIRLS'

The girl's basketball team completed a successful season winding up with a fine overall 14-7 record. Coach Carol Walcavage and Assistant Jim Nolan led the well trained girls to this third place league standing.

The team was led by three time All Scholastic and MVP Diane Kendig. Diane, in her last year of play, was the first Spartanette to reach the 1000 point plateau.

The team's high hopes for success were justified at the outset of the season as they nearly upset highly touted Carbondale and placed second in the Bishop O'Reilly Tournament.

Throughout the season the defensive play of Ruth Kruger and Beth Leandri kept the opposition away from the basket, while the rebounding of Karen Worlinsky helped control the play and set up many of the fast breaks which accounted for much of the scoring.

Next year promises to be even more successful, for Jim Nolan in his initial year as head mentor of the JV program coached the girls to an undefeated season.

The Spartan wrestling team enjoyed a very successful season this year. The Spartans posted an impressive 16-2 overall record, which is their best season since 1967. Under Head Coach Robert Herman, and Assistant Coach Hayden Evans, the grapplers finished second in the overall conference race and second in the District II Tournament.

The Spartan squad consisted of tri-captains Jim Clemente, Norm Burke, and Jeff Katra. Other varsity seniors were Paul Manganella, Ted Wolosyn, and Ray Yeager. Underclassmen on this year's varsity team were Jeff Senese, Rich Saracino, John Brennan, Steve Barber, Jay Barney, and Leo Boutanos.

John Brennan and Jim Clemente were undefeated on the season, posting 17-0-1 records. Brennan, the returning state runner-up, went one step further this year when he copped the state championship at the 98 lb. weight class by clamping his opponent in 53 seconds. Other impressive records posted this season were Jeff Katra, 16-1; Jay Barney, 15-3; Norm Burke, 14-4; Paul Manganella, 13-3; and Ray Yeager, 14-2-2.

Leading the team in pins this year was Jeff Katra with nine clamps. The take-down leader was Jim Clemente with 30, and John Brennan was the team leader in overall team points with an impressive 92.

Several J.V. wrestlers will likely hit the varsity ranks next season as the J.V. team had the best record in the league posting a 17-1 slate. With such fine wrestlers on the way up, the future for Valley West in wrestling is hopeful.

Brennan Captures State Crown With 53-Sec Pin At State College

John Brennan brought the 98 lb. State Wrestling Championship home to Wyoming Valley West after pinning his opponent in 53 seconds of the title match.

Brennan's was the first state title garnered by any athlete since the inception of Valley West.

At a special assembly of the entire student body on March 21, 1977, John stated that it all seemed like a dream.

Coach Herman noted that John won the state title in one of the toughest, most competitive wrestling states in the nation. For Herman, also, it was a dream come true. BUT IT'S REAL! WE HAVE A STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

BOYS' SWIMMING

The Boys' Swim Team had another winning season this ear, compiling an 8-4 record. Led by senior captains Jim )'Hara and Drew Potera, the Spartan aquamen defeated Meyers, Wyoming Area, Wyoming Seminary, and Pittston Area on their way to third place in the league.

After a strong showing in District competition, the team vas represented at States by Steve Greenwald. Steve, who ook second in Districts and nineteenth in States, was among host of talented swimmers.

Other senior standouts this year include John Moffat, Drew Potera, Jim O'Hara, and Rick Mattern.

Sophomore and Junior swimmers who provided valuable support to this team's efforts were Glenn Weaver, Steve Shanus, Tom Lally, Jeff Burke, Mark Welkey, Rich Evans, Mark Sendrik, and Artie Thompson.

With so many swimmers returning next year, it is certain that the '78 season will be another winning one.

GIRLS'

Coach Jan Swainbank's Girls' Swim Team swam away with a perfect record in District II compeition this year. Despite the handicap of having no home pool, the girl's determination, hard work, and high spirits led them to a fantastic 16-0 league record.

All area teams fell prey to the WVW machine which hit high gear just as Districts rolled around. Powerful performances were turned in by Lynn Schoenholtz, Jennifer Hanlon, and the dynamic sister duo, Nina and Leah Stratton.

Junior Suzanne Ansilio copped first place in diving at Districts for the second year in a row.

Senior swimmers adding many valuable points were Janine Coslett, Chris Gorgol, Jill Newirth, and Chris Plesci.

SWIMMING

boys' volleyball

The 1977 Boys Volleyball team finished another fine season under Coach Olexa. The Spartans, with a solid 8-2 record, finished second in the tough Division I league.

The young Spartans were composed of one senior, seven juniors and four sophomores including Jerry Winton, Ben Carpenetti, Greg Smith, Del Coslett, Greg Andres, Joe Monteleone, Brian Kulick, Dave Holly, and Dave Kolesar. Anchoring this year's six were co-captains Wayne Williams and Gene "Fingers" McKeown.

Valley West was honored at the end of the season by being selected to participate in the Mountain View Volleyball Classic on April 2.

Coach Olexa has shown his fine ability to bring a winning team to Wyoming Valley West by compiling a 16-4 record in two years of coaching. With so many returning underclassmen, Volleyball should continue to be a league in the near future.

The girls' volleyball team, led by senior Cheryl Smith, completed another successful season with a win-loss record of 9-3. Volleyball is strictly a "team" sport, especially here at Valley West. Other seniors like Marilyn Stochla, Linda Pencavage, Chris Belenski, Theresa Swedo, Janet Kabylski, and Karen Worlinski joined juniors Robin Kornfeld, Linda Schmid, and Susan Mras to form a well-rounded, cohesive unit.

The J.V. team also had a fine year compiling an 11-1 record.

AGAIN

The 1977 track season saw the perennial power cop the championship once again! The Spartan cindermen under the mentorship of Coach Larry Brunner ran to an extremely impressive 8-2 overall record and a perfect 5-0 season log.

Early in April, the predictions were made: Wyoming Area and Meyers would battle it out for first, with Valley West a close third. But when it came time to do the talking, our boys did it on the track.

The meet of the season was to be Valley West vs. Meyers. One year earlier Meyers had the team to beat, but when they visited Valley West, they were thumped with an amazing loss. This year they were out for revenge.

The meet began with Meyers winning the 2 mile relay, and taking a first in the 120 yard high hurdles. Then came the 100 yard dash. As they came across the finish line, it was—Jim "Fritz" Franzoni, John "Frog" Forgash, and senior walk-on Rich Cohen—a sweep for Valley West! From this point on we proceeded to "blow their doors in." One interesting note about this meet was that Bob Rushworth, a captain and a great runner, broke his leg a day earlier and was unable to compete. The meet was dedicated to Bob, and when the team took their victory lap, it was with Bob on their shoulders.

This year's team, in addition to their outstanding record, copped the Jordon Relays and placed second in the WVW Relays with Steve Evans, Wayne Davenport, Mike Musto, Charlie Boyer and Davie "Tex" Rittenhouse showing the way.

This year's team was not weak in any event. Rich Sendrick, Mark Duda and Rick Skovira led the way in the weight events. Conrad Walko excelled in the pole vault while Tom Casey became an unexpected star in the javelin.

Keeping the rumors alive that WVW grows hurdlers on trees were Bob "Pinky" Davis, Les Nicholas, George Yeninas, and John Yankovich.

And the "main man" on this year's championship drive was Dan Thomas. Dan compiled more points this year than most teams scored against us. Dan led the distance corp of Charlie Howell, Sean Mullen and Mike Borinski.

When Coach Brunner keeps winning championships with "third place" teams, we can't wait to see next year with all the "first-rate" talent on the way up!

GIRLS' TRACK

As the Girls track season came to a close, the Spartans found themselves on top again. The talented group finished with a 6-1 record, good enough to be acclaimed District champs.

The Spartans highlighted the season by capturing first place in the District meet in Scranton.

Cheryl Wallace set a district record for the mile and half mile, and a new record was set in the 880 sprint medley.

The mile relay team, consisting of Ruth Kruger, Beth Anne Kolesar, Deanna Sabaleski, and Cheryl Wallace, set a new district record with a time of 4:25.5.

Maureen Mackin set district records in the 110 low hurdles and the high jumps while Pat Dillon recorded a 13:18.4 time in the two mile run, sufficient for a new district record.

The squad also placed first in the Wyoming Valley West and Jordan Relays.

Fourteen girls were sent to the State Meet at Shippensburg from this year's team to compete against the best from Pennsylvania.

Cheryl Wallace stepped out of the pack taking fifth and sixth in the state in the half mile and mile respectively.

The Seniors who competed this year were Carol Ferris, Malinda Banash, Judy Amoroso, and Gail Karrassik.

With such an outstanding group of young runners returning, Valley West can be expected to dominate the cinders in the near future.

SOFTBALL

This year the girls' softball team compiled an impressive 10-4 record. They almost reached the playoffs, but a loss to O'Reilly in a crucial game halted their progress. Their only other losses were at the hands of Coughling and Wyoming Area.

Coach Kelly has high hopes for next year as only four members of the team will be graduating. Three of these are co-captains Diane Kendig, Kathy Scouton, and Eileen "Red" Sullivan. Other fielders include Mary Toporcer at first base, "Red" at second and Diane Kendig at third. Outfielders include Maura Giza, Naja Seman, Nina Stratton, Debbie Johnsom, Jeri Krohn, Sue Kendig, Marla Rabin, Mary Konnick, Robin Jimmy, Kathy Scouten, Lori Freeman.

Leah Stratton helped the team with her superb hitting as Joan Bosch and Ann Marie Souchick pitched beautifully. Other members of the team strengthening this year's efforts were catchers Rose Morehead and Rita Van Auken. With so much talent returning the future is bright for W.V.W. in softball.

BASEBALL

The Spartan Baseball Team completed another successful season under Coach Fred Frey posting an 8-6 league record and a 12-7 record overall.

The season was highlighted by two exciting wins against Pittston Area, a big 20-12 win against Meyers, and a decisive 7-2 decision over Coughlin, who finished the season as league champs.

The Spartan nine evoked the new "ten-run-rule" against Nanticoke by defeating the Trojans in six innings by a score of 14-1. The Spartans were edged out of a playoff berth by dropping three untimely and disappointing decisions to Bishop Hoban, Nanticoke and O'Reilly.

The potent nine constantly kept the fans on the edge of their seats with explosive hitting, many sparkling defensive plays, and excellent base running. The team closed the season with a hefty 310 team batting average.

The leading hitters for Valley West this year were John Goode and Bruce Gooday with .400 and .367 averages respectively. Gooday scandalized the league this year with 22 stolen bases and an amazing 19 runs scored. Captain Mitch Ripa batted a hefty .350 and had 10 RBI's. Mitch played excellent defense all season long, and logged a total of 17 walks and only 2 strike outs. Brian McNamara batted .341 with 10 RBI's and amassed 62 put outs and assists with only 5 miscues.

Pete Ochinko hit a hefty .321 while leading the team in at bats and held the team high with 13 RBI's.

Coach Frey summed up the season with these words: "WE DIDN'T LOSE THE CHAMPIONSHIP—WE JUST RAN OUT OF SEASON." That statement sums up my feelings about this year's team. The group of boys, especially the seniors, that comprised the team rate with the finest that ever played baseball at Valley West. Their character and determination should and will serve as an example to all future teams. Their playing skills were good enough to beat the best teams in the League, but their luck wasn't good enough to win the championship. After playing a tough exhibition schedule and feeling well prepared to start league play, they just stumbled coming out of the starting gate and with some untimely misfortunes, errors and injuries, dropped the first 3 league games. Playing such a short season and knowing that 3 losses dims your chances of a title, a team with lesser determination and character would have quit and had a disastrous season. Making a tremendous effort, they played the best ball in the league the rest of the season, but just fell short at the end of the year. When the glitter of trophies have faded to dull, the memory of an outstanding effort by a tremendous and courageous group of boys will still remain with me and all the fans who saw us play."

—Fred Frey, Coach.

TENNIS

The 1977 Varsity tennis season at Wyoming Valley West began March 1 in cold, blustery weather. Coach Charles Wilson greeted four returning lettermen in addition to twenty-one other candidates aspiring for the five singles and two double positions on the team. Following a spirited elimination round, the team was narrowed down to fourteen players, eight of whom are underclassmen.

The team plays in the Northeastern Penna tennis league, Southern Division. Other local schools in the Southern Division are Dallas, Lake-Lehman, Coughlin, Meyers, and Wyoming Seminary. The Spartans also play Abington Heights twice in the league competition and Berwick twice in exhibition.

Following a slow start in which the team lost their first three matches of the season, the team finished 7-6, a record of 6-5 in the league, good for third place. District II PIAA competition will determine qualification for the state championship. The team will be represented in boys and girls singles and boys and girls doubles.

Representing the boys will be Marc Pensak and Gary Greenberg in singles and Marc Pensak, Larry Minkoff, Warren Savitz, and Gerald Weiss in doubles.

Representing the girls will be Susan Swartz and Harriet Kornblatt in singles and doubles.

Kodak
Lens Cleaner
paper
A soft, lintless paper specially prepared for cleaning lenses, filters, and other highly polished glass surfaces.
Safe for coated lenses too.

The final copy has been mailed, deadline pressure has evaporated, and the Publications Office sports an abnormally quiet and relaxed atmosphere.

But from early September until now the Pub was the place where it was happening—all the time. Photography, schedules, layouts, copy—all day, every day.

The usual mundane expressions like "capable," "dedicated," and "efficient" can be deleted from this copy. What you can believe is that if the editors and staff weren't, they wouldn't be here.

Carol Ferris, Mary Ann Perugino, Marty Smith, Alan Kanter, Sue Vernagis, and Janine Coslett headed the staff this year and kept the work flowing smoothly. They never really allowed many problems to develop and handled the few that did arise quickly. They were most excellent choices for editors.

The Four Mouseketeers—Patty Kopec, Cynthia Mackin, Olwyn DeMarco, and Marlene Aqua—worked constantly several periods every day with the tedious and exacting typing, alphabetizing, patron listing—you name it.

Photography was again in excellent hands: Wayne Williams and Mark Tosh headed the crew. Marty Smith and Les Nicholas pitched in when needed. Junior Steve Zavatski provided valuable assistance and Sophomores Mark Perugino, Brian Nicholas, and Kris Terri added their efforts.

The rest of the staff performed well, as expected, and it is difficult to single out individuals. Perhaps it is better left unsaid. They were good—all of them.

The 1977 Spartan is expected to arrive at WVW in late August. Editors and staff are confident that it will be a more than satisfactory issue.

Nothing Succeeds Like . . .

. . . a group of dedicated, determined workers. And that's what this year's West Side Story editors and staff were: dedicated and determined. 1977 was a year of rebuilding for the WSS' Editors. Linda Popky, Ann Pasternacki and Maureen Beretsky worked from early August to accomplish a first in WVW history: a September WSS issue, distributed the second week of school.

Many innovations were brought about this year. In addition to the new multi-editors-in-chief concept, the position of feature editor was expanded to co-editors with senior Jenny Turaj and junior Matt Messinger doing an exceptional job. Senior Norm Witko was an invaluable help to the editors with his constant assistance in all phases of production.

The paper itself had a whole new look. A much more professional format was obtained through the use of an IBM Selectric Composer manned by Donna Fell, Susan Wenslow, and Jean Pasternacki. The paper was expanded to six and sometimes eight pages, and various departments were studied in-depth each issue. Our range of articles was expanded, and besides a review of all the relevant Valley West activities, a special Focus '76 series on the presidential election was printed culminating with a mock election in November.

Our feature staff of Gladys DeMarco, Donna Fell, Chris Filchak, Tisha Lukas, Marla Rabin, Bev Rabinowitz, Marilyn Stochla, Laurie Simon, Collete Radginski, and Sue Wenslow was kept busy coming up with new and interesting ideas for feature stories. Features introduced this year were book, movie, music, and TV reviews, plant and ecology columns, and our ever-popular Word Search and crossword puzzles.

Our sports section was expanded to include a monthly editorial dealing with a controversial sports-related subject. Editor Joan Bosch along with co-editor Matt Stolow and faithful writers Elaine Taroli, Chas Boyer, Mike Borinski, Les Nicholas, and Donna Fell did a terrific job of covering all major WVW sports teams and events.

Editorials were supervised by Marjorie Zimmerman and the excellent photographs found between our covers were taken by ace photographers Les Nicholas, Mark Tosh, Wayne Williams, and Steve Zavatski. Many students were involved in WSS production in 1977 and hopefully many more will be part of the 1978 WSS.

Copies of the paper were distributed free to each student and teacher monthly. This was made possible by the more than efficient and speedy printing done by the Advanced Graphic Arts students under the guiding hand of Mr. Thomas Ambrose. Thanks to the administration and Mr. Ferris for their cooperation in the production and distribution of the WSS and to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Smith for the unselfish devotion of their time and talents to the improvements of the paper.

Mr. Andrew P. Marko, the WSS's ever-patient, all-knowing advisor, was extremely pleased with the great progress made by the staff this year. "I think we have produced a very fine school newspaper and that our West Side Story can stand up to any student-produced newspaper in the area. With the great group of juniors and sophomores we have, I expect the 1978 paper to be even better than this year's, but it's going to be hard to improve on perfection."

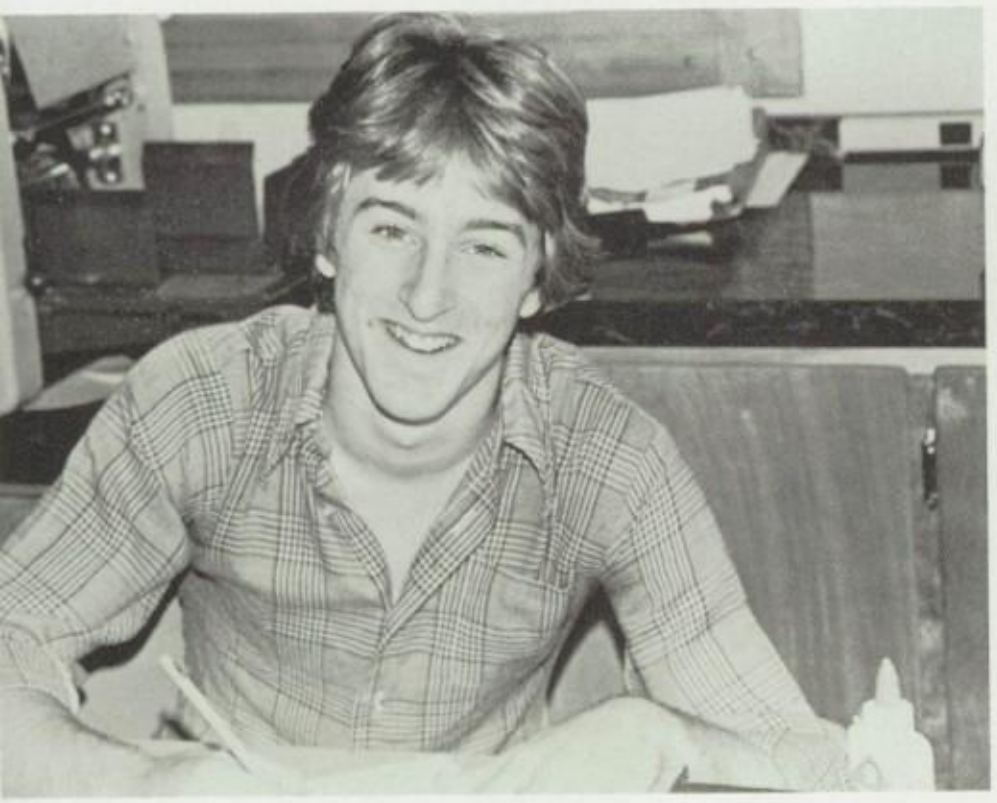
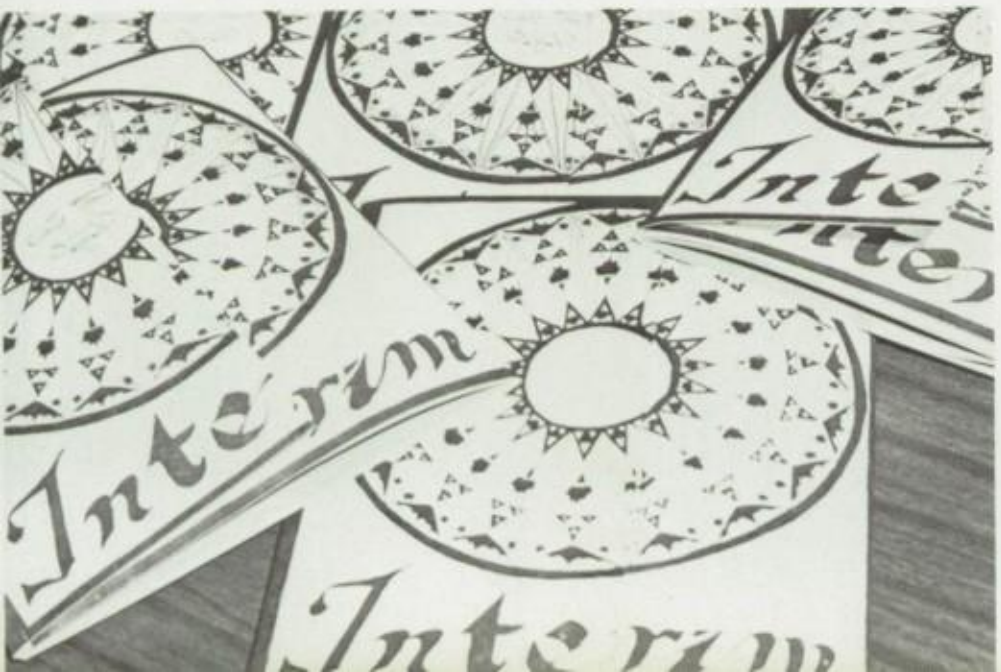
SITTING: Ann Pasternacki, Editor; Jenny Turaj, Editor; Linda Popky, Editor; and Maureen Beretsky, Editor. STANDING: Susan Winslow, Staff; Donna Fell, Staff; Andrew Marko, Advisor; Barbara Volak, Staff; and Norm Witko, Staff.





W.V.W. distributed INTERIM, the annual creative magazine, on June 6, 1977. It was circulated free of charge to students and faculty.

Students submitted poetry, prose, art, and photography. The editors, staff and advisor graded the writing to include that which was considered to be of greatest literary merit.

The editors are grateful to all those who took the time and trouble to submit work.

Co-editors were Maureen Beretsky, Linda Popky, Ann Pasternacki, and Jenny Turaj. Chris Casilli was art editor. Mr. Andrew Marko was advisor; Mr. Thomas Ambrose was printer.

Much talent and hard work merged to create one of the finest literary magazines produced in the Valley in a long time.
